Nature of Noncompliance for Violations 1- 3

According to a Grand Rapids, Michigan, Police Department arrest report, officers were dispatched to a residence in reference to a domestic assault. Officers spoke to the victim, age 14, who stated his mother's boyfriend, Mr. Velasquez-Lopez, entered his bedroom and struck him with an unknown object on his knee. Officers observed a visible minor welt and redness of the victim's kneecap. The victim reported he told his siblings to go to another room and then contacted the police. Officers made contact with Mr. Velasquez-Lopez and arrested him. They observed him to have blood on his hands and noticed a blood trail leading into the living space of the residence. One of the minor children in the residence told the officers Mr. Velasquez-Lopez punched a hole in a piece of glass.

Mr. Velasquez-Lopez was arrested under the name Jose Sanchez-Solivan. His true identity was discovered upon his booking into the Kent County Correctional Facility, Grand Rapids, Michigan. He has been charged with Child Abuse – 3rd Degree, in the 61st District Court, Grand Rapids, Michigan, in Case Number 23-FY-1517. A next court date is scheduled for October 17, 2023.

Mr. Velasquez-Lopez is not a citizen of the United States, has no legal status in the United States. According to Immigration and Customs Enforcement records, he was last deported on or about March 29, 2023, to his native Guatemala. Mr. Velasquez-Lopez did not receive permission to reenter the United States and did not report to the nearest probation office upon reentering the United States.
